

Connie and Jack Provencher recently donated $1,000 to the Canaan Historical Society towards the purchase of three new display cases for the museum. The Canaan Historical Society is located upstairs at the Alice M. Ward Memorial Library in Canaan. Connie and Jack are pictured in the left photo standing next to one of the beautiful new display cases. The right photo is another of the three new pieces recently purchased. The cases were bought locally at Dostie's Furniture in Colebrook. Angela Wheeler photos.
